IOWA EVENTS CENTER | DES MOINES, IA

PRESS RELEASE

[FOR RELEASE: January 20, 2023]

SUBJECT: Iowa Ag Expo's Innovation Hubs: The Future of Agriculture Technology

Des Moines, IA — The Iowa Ag Expo, renowned for its commitment to showcasing cutting-edge agricultural technology, proudly presents the Innovation Hubs, unparalleled showcases of the latest and most revolutionary ag technology in the industry. The Iowa Ag Expo continues to support advancing agricultural innovation and empowering ag producers with state-of-the-art solutions.

Located in the Ballroom of Community Choice and the floor of the Wells Fargo arena at the Iowa Events Center, the Innovation Hubs are a vibrant hub of technological excellence, boasting approximately 46 handpicked companies that have demonstrated exceptional innovation and ingenuity. The participating companies are carefully selected based on the novelty and transformative potential of their products, ensuring that visitors encounter only the best of the best.

"The Innovation Hubs epitomize our commitment to driving progress in the agriculture sector," said Expo Director Tom Junge. "It serves as a launchpad for visionary ideas, groundbreaking products, and entrepreneurs."

The Innovation Hubs set themselves apart by providing an inviting and captivating environment for exhibitors and visitors alike. Featuring bright carpeting, elegant white drapery, a giant video wall, and exceptional exhibitor displays, the hubs create a perfect stage for companies to showcase their game-changing technologies and solutions.

- Selective Application Process: Companies are meticulously chosen through a comprehensive application process, with a focus on start-ups, entrepreneurs, and major manufacturers actively pushing the boundaries of agricultural technology.
- Opportunity for Return Exhibitors: Past participants of the Innovation Hubs are encouraged to re-apply, reinforcing the event's commitment to fostering enduring relationships with the most innovative companies.

"Through the Innovation Hubs, we aim to create a thriving ecosystem that brings together innovators, growers, and prospective stakeholders, fostering collaborations that shape the future of agriculture," Junge added.

The Iowa Ag Expo recognizes that innovation is not limited to the confines of the Innovation Hubs. As such, companies that may not meet the specific criteria are encouraged to exhibit through the general booth application process, providing an inclusive platform for all ag-related businesses to participate.
